Third party cookies

Neuberger Berman also uses cookies which collect information and send it to third parties. An example of this is Google Analytics. This site also includes Social Interaction links with external websites (such as Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn). Neuberger Berman does not control any cookies that may be sent by these external websites. Where this site allows such cookies to be set or you access other websites from this site using the links provided, the operators of these websites will use cookies in accordance with their own cookies policy, which may differ from ours.

How to withdraw consent to control and/or delete cookies

It is possible to remove cookies or block them from recording this information, generally by selecting the Options menu then Privacy section of your browser. Each browser is slightly different and constantly updating. For more information consult the Help menu for your browser.

Neuberger Berman’s use of cookies

When using cookies, we do not collect or store any personal information about you unless you are a registered user and we need to collect data to identify you. Many cookies are designed to give you optimal usage of the web. For example, we use cookies to enable you to improve your user experience when using our website, such as determining whether your browser supports specific technology features.

Types of Cookie

- Analytical: This type of cookie helps us to see how you use our website. They don't collect any information that could identify you – all the information collected is anonymous and is only used to help us improve the performance of our website, understand what interests our users and measure how effective our marketing is.
- Usage: This type of cookie is used to customize website content based on site visitor selections and activities. This allows us to customize the site for the individual visitor.
- Technical: The software that runs the website uses cookies to fulfill the technical needs of our servers. For instance, we use cookies to distribute requests among multiple servers, authenticate users and determine what features of the site they can access, verify the origin of requests, keep track of information about a user's session and determine which options or pages to display in order for the site to function.

Our Use of Cookies

- Session cookies: help us maintain security and verify your details as you navigate from page to page, which enables you to avoid having to re-enter your details each time you enter a new page.
- Persistent cookies: help us recognize you as a unique user when you return to our website so that you do not have to input your details multiple times, remember how you have customized your use of this site and collect and compile anonymous, aggregated information for analytical purposes.

To make full use of the website, your computer or mobile device will need to accept cookies, as the site will not function properly without them.

By using our website you accept Neuberger Berman's use of cookies.
